MODA Entertainment Announces Launch of Classic Hollywood Magazine: ICONS

NEW YORK, NY – June 15, 2006 --“ICONS”, a magazine based on the larger than life personalities from the golden era of Hollywood, is slated to launch early next year. Celebrating the glamour, passion, and style of days gone by, ICONS will provide an in depth view of the stories behind the stories - editorial commentary from the world’s foremost entertainment writers. ICONS reveals what no other magazine can – what it was like to be behind the scenes during the shooting of the great classics, featuring hits such as Gary Cooper in High Noon to Humphrey Bogart in Casablanca. ICONS conducts interviews with family, friends and co-workers of the great legends, getting the inside scoop about their lives off screen, capturing little known details and glimpses of their private lives.

ICONS also shows how the lifestyles of classic Hollywood have evolved, yet still influence the film industry and the lives of the current stars who grace the red carpet. Follow ICONS as it chronicles fashion, style and cinematography from the golden era to the Academy Award winners of today and tomorrow.
